Award-winning: VP Bank's annual report has again received several awards and is ranked an amazing number three in the Swiss Annual Report Rating

Vaduz, 23 September 2021

VP Bank Group's annual report won six international awards in 2021. These awards confirm the high quality of VP Bank's corporate communication and once again demonstrate the Bank's exceptional creativity.

VP Bank Group's annual report was awarded number three in the HarbourClub and Bilanz's Swiss Annual Report Rating. With a superb jury comprising design experts and financial professionals, this rating is the most important in Switzerland, and the largest of its kind.

VP Bank received further awards at the prestigious ARC Awards in the USA. The online annual report 2020 won gold and the print edition silver, with VP Bank coming out on top against 1,875 submissions from 27 countries. The ARC Awards have been given out in the US for 35 years, and it is the largest annual report competition in the world exclusively for annual reports.

VP Bank also received a Gold Award each for the print report and the online version at the 20th LACP (League of American Communications Professionals) Vision Awards in the US, featuring around 500 participants from 20 countries. Another Gold came from the 18th International Business Awards of the Stevie Awards in the US for the online version of VP Bank's 2020 Annual Report. The Stevie Awards winners were selected from more than 3,700 nominations submitted by organisations in 65 nations.

VP Bank's annual report is available on the Bank's website under "Investor Relations / Results presentations and publications". The online version of the 2020 Annual Report can be viewed here.
